H018382 FILICE v. SUPERIOR COURT; WELKER

Let a writ of mandate issue commanding respondent court to set aside your discovery order of April 17, 1998, and to enter a new and different order which, subject to any further hearing or in camera proceedings and, in accordance with the views expressed in this opinion, is narrowly tailored to avoid compelling disclosure of either the expression of petitioner's testamentary intent or the identity of the trust beneficiaries, while compelling production of all Joseph Filice Family Trust documents which are relevant to the issues of marital property and financial status. The alternative writ is discharged and the temporary stay is vacated. Each party to bear its own costs in this writ proceeding. (not published)
